

Meeting your community involvement needs...

Our ADP program is designed to offer a range of social, physical and recreational activities to meet the need of frail older adults, individuals with memory impairment and adults with physical disabilities. In addition to providing a safe supportive environment for clients, Adult Day provides caregivers with respite from their caregiving role.

How Adult Day Programming makes a difference...

Adult Day Programming is a therapeutic, social, and recreational service for seniors that are specifically designed to enhance the well-being of attendees through social, physical and mental stimulation in a supportive, home like environment. Attendance and participation is shown to strengthen the ability to remain independent for as long as possible as well as provide respite to caregivers.

Leave the day programming to us! Each client's individual interests and needs are taken into consideration when planning our daily activities. Call today if you would like to see what our programs have to offer.
